Medicon Courses provide a valuable and focused education related to clinical practice presented by experts of the respective discipline.

Medicon Courses are characterized by:

- ▶ Small groups, about 5 – 10 participants
- ▶ No video transmission, the participants are directly at the operating table. This guarantees the ability to talk to the experts directly
- ▶ Accreditation of the State Chamber of Medicine in Germany
- ▶ Comprehensive programme featuring surgical approach, operating technique, surgical planning process as well as organization and the efficient input of resources and technique
- ▶ Establishing networks
- ▶ Clinical discussion of current surgical cases
- ▶ Support by Medicon employees
